

Martha S. Wolf, M.A., NCC, QDCP

Director, Community Dementia Care @ Parker Jewish Institute for Health Care and Rehabilitation

Director, Willing Hearts, Helpful Hands Program

Bachelors Degree in Psychology from the Univ. of North Carolina-Chapel Hill Master of Arts in Career Counseling and Business from N.C. Central University.

Nationally Certified Counselor
Certified Dementia Care Professional
Who's Who in Vocational and Medical Rehabilitation
Fellow, Certified Rehabilitation Counselor

Past President, National Rehabilitation Counseling Association
Co-President, NY State Adult Day Services Assoc., Southern Region
Vice-President, NYSADSA
Advisor, Kenneth A. Smaltz, Sr. Foundation 2011-present

Committees

NYC Geriatric Mental Health Alliance, 2013-present.

Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies Elderly Task Force, 2012-present

Board of Directors/ Vice-President – Queens Health Coalition, 2005-2010.

Queens Geriatric Mental Health Committee, 2000-present

Many years of experience in the not-for profit arena, working with disability groups as an administrator and advocate in the fields of dementia care, developmental disabilities and neurological impairment, traumatic brain injury, arthritis in industry, spinal cord injury, and aging. Support Group leader for spouses of Alzheimer patients. Lecturer and trainer on Alzheimer's disease and caregiver issues.